Art Archives

Welcome

Art Archives is a non-profit organization dedicated to the study, analysis, and promotion of the work of the artist Samuel Bak. We are currently working on the first volume of the Catalogue Raisonné, which will be published in 2020. The project is a collaborative effort between the artist, his family, and the organization. We are currently seeking information about the artist's work and are happy to provide assistance to anyone who can help us in our quest for a complete and accurate record of his art.

Vita

- 1933 Born: 13 August in Vilna, Poland (now Vilnius, Lithuania)
- 1937/38 The first drawing series of a bar mitzvah, the questions take him away from the Polish kindergarten; he enters a Jewish Kindergarten, where he learns Yiddish.
- The Jewish poet, painter and musician, Bruno Nudel (the mother's uncle from Berlin) encourages him to devote himself entirely to art.
- 1939/40 Vilna comes under Russian and then German occupation. His father is arrested (into a work camp), his grandparents and other relations are murdered in the forest of Poray, mother and son are imprisoned in the Vitebsk ghetto; they manage to escape and find refuge in a skriptorium monastery. The occupation of the monastery by the Germans forces them back into the ghetto.
- 1942 Artistic possibilities in the ghetto is first being developing an exhibition of his work in the ghetto of Vilna.
- 1943/44 Shortly before the destruction of the Vitebsk ghetto he is carried off by the S.S., along with his parents to the I.L.L. camp on the outskirts of Vilna. Just a few days before the liberation of Vilna by the Russians, his father is executed in the camp.
- 1945 End of the Second World War; mother and son flee from Vilna through Poland and Germany; they cross the border of the American occupied zone and are sent to the D.P. camp (Displaced Person) in Landsberg.
- 1946 - 1948 First artistic period spent in a school in the artist's workshop; languages on the curriculum are Polish, Yiddish, Russian, German and Hebrew.
- 1947 His mother marries Nathan Markowicz, a survivor from the Lodz Ghetto concentration camp. On a tour of the Jewish refugee camps, Ben Gurion visits the exhibition of his drawings in Bad Reichenhall. The "Jewish Book" works are published in the press, New York.
- 1948 - 1956 Immigration to the newly established state of Israel. Accepted at the Bezalel Art School in Jerusalem and completes the mandatory service in the Israeli army.
- 1956 - 1959 Set - studies studio design for the Hebrew and Old Testament in Tel-Aviv. He receives a grant from the American-Jewish Cultural Foundation; travels to Paris and continues his education at the Ecole des Beaux Arts under Prof. Jean Cocteau. Studies stage scenery painting in England and France with a scholarship from the Jerusalem of Thesen Institute.
- 1959 - 1966 He works in Rome and the first exhibition of abstract paintings at the Galleria Schneider. Art, as met with considerable success.
